

Note: You can copy/paste your information in the boxes on the form

Faculty of Social Sciences
University of Ottawa
Research project

Name:

Program:

Explain your motivation to complete a doctoral degree in political science

Large empty text area for writing the motivation to complete a doctoral degree in political science.

This program requires that you successfully complete one course in French. Please provide a description of your ability to speak, read and write in French

Summary of the proposed research project

Introduction: background of the research, identify its significance and a clear statement of the research question

Literature review

Theoretical framework

Research Methodology

Propose a potential supervisor, justify your choice and indicate if you have been in contact with this person

Key references