

TWO MASTER'S DIPLOMAS IN CRIMINOLOGY: UO-BE (DDCRIM) : INFORMATION FOR INTERESTED STUDENTS

Effective in the Fall 2017, students registered in the Master's program at the University of Ottawa will have the opportunity to choose, when in the thesis option, a 2 year program where they will receive two diplomas: Maîtrise ès arts criminologie de l'UOttawa et Master en criminologie de l'Université Catholique de Louvain (UCL) (Belgique).

Requirements of the program

To obtain these two diplomas, the student will:

- (1) spend the first year at l'UCL (September to June) and will have to successfully complete 8 courses including the Major Research Paper/Thesis Seminar for a total of 18 credits; and
- (2) spend the second year at the UO where you will complete 3 courses including the Research Seminar for a total of 18 credits. (see appendices)

The student is also required to complete a thesis under the supervision of two professors, an Ottawa University Professor and a UCL Professor; to successfully complete the thesis requirement, the student will have to defend the thesis before a jury consisting of the UO thesis supervisor and two members of the jury one of which is the co-supervisor from UCL (via videoconference).

Fees and funding

Costs associated with travel, personal expenses, health insurance, lodging, insurance and local transportation are the sole responsibility of the student.

Students registered at the University of Ottawa will pay their tuition to the University of Ottawa for the duration of the program.

Students eligible for the UO Admission Scholarship (8.0 average) will maintain the scholarship. The contribution of the Department of Criminology will also be honored according to the program modalities.

The selected candidates and those who have registered for this program will receive $1000 per semester for a total of 2 semesters from the International Mobility Scholarship offered by the International Office and the Faculty of Social Sciences.

Students registered in this program may also apply for a scholarship offered by the Department of Criminology

To obtain student status at UCL which is necessary to obtain the UCL diploma, students will have to pay for administrative fees charged by the UCL during their first year.

Registration

1) Conditions

- Students must hold a Bachelor's degree with a major in Criminology or equivalent with a minimum average of 75% (B+) calculated from the last 60 credits.
