1. Faculty Council

The Faculty Council develops by-laws and internal policies for the effective management of Faculty affairs. By-laws are subject to approval by the University’s Senate in academic-related matters and by the designated University authority for all other matters (section 18(2) of the University of Ottawa Act, 1965). Internal policies are approved by the Faculty Council.

NOTE: Refer to Section 1 of the Faculty By-laws for rules governing the mandate and membership of the Faculty Council.

1.1 Procedures for electing Faculty Council members

1.1.1 Procedures for electing regular teaching staff members:
a. Members of the Faculty Council are elected by the regular faculty members of their own academic unit;
b. All regular teaching staff of the Faculty’s academic units are eligible;
c. Unless otherwise indicated, terms are two years, renewable;
d. Terms are from July 1 to June 30;
e. The directors or chairs convey the election results to the Vice-Dean of Governance and Internationalization;
f. Any vacancy that occurs between elections must be filled by the academic unit concerned according to its own procedures.

1.1.2 Procedures for electing part-time teaching staff members:

a. The Vice-Dean of Governance and Internationalization is responsible for administering the election;
b. A call for candidates will be issued in September. If multiple candidates come forward, an election will take place by secret ballot, with the result announced to all part-time teaching staff. In the event of vacancy, a second call for candidates will occur in January;
c. All part-time teaching staff with a teaching assignment of at least 3 credits within the academic year in any program offered by the Faculty are eligible to stand for election;
d. All part-time teaching staff with a teaching assignment of at least 3 credits within the academic year in any program offered by the Faculty are eligible to vote in this election;
e. The academic year for this article begins 1 September and ends 31 August;
f. Terms are for one year, renewable;
g. Terms are from October 1 to September 30;

1.1.3 Procedures for electing student members:

a. The Vice-Dean of Governance and Internationalization asks the Faculty’s undergraduate and graduate student associations, the University of Ottawa’s Students Union (UOSU) and the Graduate Students’ Association (GSAED) to conduct recruitment of candidates and administer elections if multiple candidates declare interest.
b. Elections are conducted according to the internal procedures established by the student associations;
c. Elections take place each September;
d. Student members are elected for a renewable term of one year, from October 1 to September 30;
e. All regular full-time and part-time students of an academic unit of the Faculty are eligible;
f. The student associations convey the election results to the Vice-Dean of Governance and Internationalization.
1.1.4 Procedure for electing representatives of the administrative staff:
   a. The member is elected by his or her peers by secret ballot during elections organized by the Faculty’s Chief Administrative Officer. All nominations must be supported by at least three other regular staff members;
   b. Terms of office are two years, renewable;
   c. Terms begin October 1 and end September 30;
   d. The elected staff member is also an ex officio member of the Faculty’s Executive Committee;
   e. The Faculty’s Chief Administrative Officer communicates the election results to the Vice-Dean of Governance and Internationalization.

1.2 Vacancies

If an academic unit, student association administrative staff council member is not elected, the seat shall remain vacant.

1.3 Meeting schedule

1.3.1 Council meetings are normally held once a month from September to May, inclusively.

1.3.2 Meeting dates and times are set by the Dean and announced to members at the beginning of the academic year.

1.3.3 Special meetings may be called if required.

2. Standing Committees of the Faculty Council

The Faculty’s Executive Committee, the Undergraduate Studies Committee, the Graduate Studies Committee, the Research Committee, and the Faculty Teaching Personnel Committee, are standing committees of the Faculty Council.

NOTE: Refer to Section 2 of the Faculty By-laws for rules governing the mandate and membership of the Standing Committees of the Faculty Council.

2.1 Nominations and elections to committees

2.1.1 Academic units may elect or appoint one representative to each of the Undergraduate Studies Committee, the Graduate Studies Committee, and the Research Committee;

2.1.2 Academic units may fill vacancies within the academic year should they arise.
2.1.3 Student members of the Undergraduate Studies Committee and the Graduate Studies Committee are elected by the Faculty Council at its October meeting.

2.1.4 A representative of the Faculty’s Research Centres, Research Institutes, and Research Chairs is elected to the Research Committee by the following procedure:

a. The Vice-Dean responsible for research administers the election;

b. All Directors of Research Centres and Institutes are eligible to stand for election, and to vote in the election of a representative;

c. All holders of Research Chairs (internally- and externally-funded) are eligible to stand for election, and to vote in the election of a representative;

d. A call for candidates will be issued in April. If multiple candidates come forward for either position, an election will take place by secret ballot, with the result announced to all eligible voters;

e. Terms are for two years, renewable;

f. Terms are from September 1 to August 30.

2.2 Faculty Teaching Personnel Committee (FTPC)

2.2.1 No unit (department, school or institute) of the Faculty can have more than one member on the FTPC;

2.2.2 The Executive Committee of the Faculty is mandated to engage in proactive, targeted outreach in the recruitment of FTPC candidates to ensure gender parity and attract candidates of designated employment equity groups (women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minorities).
